Why become a U.S. attorney?

- An exciting and different lifestyle in America
- Set yourself apart from the competition in a tough employment market
- Take your career down an exciting, international route
- Expand your CV, skill set and experience
- Involve yourself in the global profession.

About the Bar Exams

The exams are made up of two elements, assessed over two days and held in the relevant State as follows:

- The State-specific Bar Exam, which consists of essay questions, MCQs and 1 Multistate Performance Test Question.
- The Multistate Bar Exam or MBE, a test of common law which all prospective attorneys must take, regardless of the State in which they intend to practise.
- All prospective US attorneys must also pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (the MPRE), an ethics test, before they can be admitted.

Benefits of our Bar Review Courses:

- Offered in association with Kaplan PMBR, a leader in professional exam preparation for more than 30 years.
- Carefully designed to prepare you for all elements of the Exam, including the MPRE.
- Kaplan PMBR is the largest provider of preparation for the MBE in the U.S.
- Versatile, easy-to-access learning resources.
- Comprehensive on-line Programme, supplemented with a small number of subject-specific textbooks.
- Online content consists of pre-recorded lectures, available on demand, and a wealth of practice questions and resources.

- Personalised Study Plans and access to an “Ask an Attorney” support facility.
- Our tried and tested Programme will teach you the law you need to know and how to apply it.
